HOW TO CHOOSE YOUR INJECTOR

WHAT ARE INJECTABLES & HOW DO THEY WORK?

Our expertise lies in two main types of injectables:

1. Botulinum toxin type A (also known as 'Botox'), which gently relaxes facial muscles to reduce wrinkles
2. Dermal fillers that add a touch of magic, plumping up areas of your face for a radiant glow.

QUESTIONS TO ASK

Ensure you consult a registered health practitioner who is authorised to prescribe injectables. They'll take your full history, discuss safety, risks, and your expectations, ensuring it's the right fit for you.

Questions to ask...

- Will the prescriber consult me first?
- Will they take my full history?
- Will they explain any risks?
- Are they registered/authorised to prescribe the medicine?
- What are the short/long term risks?
- Are there any long-term effects?
- How much time will I have to consider whether I want to go ahead?
- Is there any other information?
- I have allergies, is this safe for me?
- Is it safe to drive after my procedure?

WHERE SHOULD I GET THE PROCEDURE?

- Premises must meet infection control standards.
- Look for clean and hygienic facilities with proper waste disposal and handbasin
- Ensure the person wears protective equipment.
- Check for sealed, disposable needles.
- Beware of having the procedure in non-clinical settings.

ABOUT

SUNNY

HOW DO I KNOW IF THE PERSON IS REGISTERED, QUALIFIED, SKILLED AND EXPERIENCED?

For your safety and peace of mind, always ensure that the cosmetic injectables used in your procedure are legally sourced and prescribed by an authorised health practitioner in Australia.

You can ask the prescriber about the brand and substance of the injectables they use,

You can also verify their approval for use in Australia by searching the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods (ARTG) on the Therapeutic Goods Administration \(TGA\) website. Taking this extra step allows you to be confident that you are receiving the right and approved product for your cosmetic treatment.

WHY CHOOSE ME AS YOUR INJECTOR

With a career as a highly trained specialist cardiac scrub nurse for 20 years, I've had the privilege of working in some of the world's top cardiac hospitals, where I've literally held someone else's heart in the palm of my hand.

Building upon this extensive background, I ventured into the aesthetic industry five years ago, focusing on cosmetic injectables, laser treatment, skincare, and micro-dermal needling.

Throughout my journey, I've been fortunate to be mentored by seasoned nurses with over two decades of experience in this industry, which has further enriched my knowledge and expertise. Now, I relish educating my clients on their specific needs and exploring the possibilities to enhance their facial composition with the same passion, depth, and intensity that have defined my career. My approach is holistic, utilising various modalities and paying meticulous attention to detail, reflecting the high standards of my background.

As a natural health practitioner, I have always believed in the power of nature and holistic wellness. Always supporting my body with natural herbs and holistic approach. Younger tho I know I wasn't always the best with sun screen and I've always done alot of excercise. After the age of 45, I could see some subtle signs of aging that were beginning to appear on my face. I love being my age, and didn't want to hide who I was or fit into a mould. Just wanted to look fresher and approach this part of my life gracefully.

Although I knew that facial enhancements could be an option, I hesitated, fearing an unnatural outcome that would clash with my beliefs in natural beauty. One day, a close friend, who had experienced a very natural improvements herself, recommended I visit Nurse Injector Sunny. She assured me that Sunny was different from other injectors, with a deep understanding and appreciation for natural results. I decided to take the leap and As a natural health practitioner, I have always believed in the power of nature and holistic wellness. Always supporting my body with natural herbs and holistic approach. Younger tho I know I wasn't always the best with sun screen and I've always done alot of excercise. After the age of 45, I could see some subtle signs of aging that were beginning to appear on my face. I love being my age, and didn't want to hide who I was or fit into a mould. Just wanted to look fresher and approach this part of my life gracefully.

Throughout the consultation, Sunny showed understanding. She explained the different treatment options available to address my specific concerns while always emphasizing the importance of maintaining a natural appearance. What struck me most was her emphasis on harmony—balancing the enhancements with my existing features rather than altering them drastically. As the treatment began, Sunny's gentle demeanor and her ability to explain each step with great detail reassured me. She took her time, carefully placing the injections with precision and expertise, all while ensuring my comfort throughout the process.

The results were nothing short of astonishing. I looked refreshed and rejuvenated. What amazed me most was that the enhancements were subtle, yet they made a significant difference in how I felt about myself. I still looked like me—just a more vibrant and youthful version. Beyond the physical improvements, Sunny's approach had a profound impact on my self-esteem. Her commitment to enhancing my natural beauty aligned seamlessly with my belief in holistic well-being. I no longer felt conflicted about pursuing facial enhancements, as Sunny's philosophy was rooted in preserving the essence of who I was, rather than changing me into someone else.

I continue to see Nurse Injector Sunny for touch-ups and maintenance, and each visit reaffirms my decision to trust her with my appearance. We agree that aging is a blessing and we can do it gracefully celebrating who we are.

To all my fellow natural health advocates and anyone seeking natural facial enhancements, I wholeheartedly recommend visiting Nurse Injector Sunny. Her expertise, attention to detail, and respect for individuality will leave you looking and feeling revitalized while staying true to your principles of embracing the beauty of nature. With Sunny, you'll discover that enhancing your appearance can complement your inner well-being, ultimately leading to a more radiant and confident you. book a consultation with her.
